

Interview Training

- Would you like to help shape the Teen health Service?
- Would you like to be involved in the recruitment process within the team?
- Would you like to have a say and have your voice heard?

If you have answered yes to the questions above, we have an exciting opportunity for young people aged 11-19, to access training to be involved with the recruitment process for Teen Health, within the Family Help service.

This will be a training session, which is 3 hours long, and will cover the below topics.

Following on from this training, you will then be able to be involved in a panel which supports the recruitment within our service.

Before

A Young People's Health and Wellbeing Officer will contact you with the information and get a permission form signed.

During

Things covered in the training:

- What is an Interview and what is involved?
- The Legal stuff
- Your role, and your responsibilities
- The Interview Process

After

You will receive a certificate of attendance and have the opportunity to attend future recruitment panels.

During the day:

It is expected that you will:

- Work with us to make it a positive experience for all
- Become more confident and learn skills to support the recruitment process.

Together we will:

- Talk and listen
- Have fun
- Learn new things.

We will all:

- Be kind to each other
- Listen to each other Respect each other
- Support and encourage each other
- Be honest and open with each other
